Why Choose An Affordable Direct Cremation

A direct cremation is perfect for those who wish to commemorate their loved one in their own way. Aside from the obvious savings, direct cremation offers you more flexibility, allowing you to pay a fair price for the services that are needed, whilst avoiding the costs for services that you feel are not appropriate for you.

Many people wish to hold their own private ceremonies or purchase a memorial and use the savings to do so. For others, it is the wishes of the deceased to hold a no fuss cremation. Sometimes it's simply too hard to gather all those who wish to attend at a specific location at a fixed time. In this instance, direct cremations offer more flexibility to organise a private ceremony at a time and location of your choosing.

- A direct cremation is also perfect for individuals who have no close family or haven't made a financial provision in their will.
- Perfect for all religious and non-religious ceremonies.
- Those who want a no fuss cremation.
- People who wish to have a celebration of life away from a crematorium.
- Anyone wishing to save money on traditional funeral costs without compromising quality and personal service.
